2019 IAGS Conference Scholarships

The IAGS Conference Organising Committee calls for applications for competitive scholarships to contribute towards the costs of attending the 2019 IAGS Conference taking place in 2019 in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Scholarships are open to:

- PhD students
- Early Career Researchers (within 5 years of PhD completion)
- Scholars from developing countries
- Participants from NGOs (incl. museums)
- Artists and other creative professionals

Applicants must have an abstract already accepted to present at the 2019 IAGS Conference. Applications should be sent to the conference organizers at the following email address: info@iags2019.com, and be received no later than April 7, 2019. Please indicate “IAGS Scholarship Application” in the email subject line.

Applications should include:

- A covering document listing title, name, position, institutional affiliation, contact details.
- Max. 150-word biography.
- A one-page statement including:
  - A statement on how attending the 2019 IAGS Conference will contribute towards your research or practice.
  - The topic of your paper accepted for presentation at the conference.
  - A detailed explanation of why you require funding to attend the conference.
- A fully itemised budget of conference-related costs and expected sources of revenue.

Please note that ALL participants are required to pay their own registration fee, and scholarships will not be applied to the registration fee cost. Applicants must also be members in good standing of the International Association of Genocide Scholars. Memberships are available from IAGS at: https://www.genocidescholars.org/membership.

Scholarship amounts will vary depending on the total number of accepted applicants. Awards are unlikely to cover all an applicant’s costs, so the committee encourages applicants to seek funding from other sources.

Please note that scholarships will be paid in cash at the conference and require a signature on receipt of payment.
